

Pre-Access Introduction Course Award Level 2

Adult

Leisure and Professional

The course is designed as an introductory offering for individuals wanting to 'dip their toes' back into education. It will focus on providing basic academic, level 2 skills with the foresight to encourage further education. The educational aims of the programme are to start the foundations of level 2 study, aiming at learners that have maybe been out of education for some time or did not succeed in education previously. The course is aimed at those that would like to explore entry back into education and encourage exploration of future career and educational opportunities.
